

Mr. Welch

The other day we interviewed Mr. Welch. We asked him a few questions about sports, MAPS, and assessments. The first question we asked him was:

1) What are your expectations for the year?

His answer was: treat each other with respect and that teachers and students make sure they are prepared for assessments.

2) How did the overall MAPS test go?

He said: there were some scores that were good and some that weren't so good. It allowed us to look at the areas that were not so good and help the students in those areas.

3) How do you think our scores will be on our assessments this year?

He said: that the teachers have the students prepared and will be very disappointed if we don't do well.

4) How do you think our sports were and are going?

He said: Football did well. We scored second in 7th grade, and 8th grade tied for fifth. 8th grade volleyball scored third in the league. Good job representing us!

Girls Basketball

On Monday, October 26th Girls Basketball played Jayhawk-Linn. Unfortunately we lost, but it was our first game. The next day I asked the coaches, Ms. Percy and Ms. Bowen, what they thought the girls could have done to make the game end better.

Ms. Percy said: "They should have handled the ball better, but they will improve with practice.

They also had the first game jitters."

Ms. Bowen said: "Run the offense!"

The scores were: 8th grade, 24-8, and 7th, 22-8.

Fashion Column

Destroyed jeans and skinny jeans have found a compromise, which has made a cross between the two, destroyed straight jeans. Grunge has finally made a come back and it's rocking the fall season. The layered look had also came into the picture, when you bundle up it's a style and not because you're cold. Who ever said that being preppy was a bad thing? Not American Eagle and other popular clothing lines, because they have finally turned it into a style and you better hurry or it will be last week's news. Last but not least, VIN-TAGE! When your parents tell you about how they dressed back then, put a modern twist to it and you might just have the next big thing, fashion wise that is. If you want to get these styles go to www.hollisterco.com, www.ae.com, www.abercrombie&fitch.com By: Mikaela

Sport Interviews

Chase Brown.

Chase said his best game was Osawatomie. He also said the season was ok, but they could have done better.

Gavin Holler

Gavin had eight rushing touchdowns. On defense, he had twenty tackles.

Most football players are temperamental. That's ninety percent temper and ten percent mental.

~Doug Plank

Zach McAfee

Zach threw four passing touchdowns for the season, and he had one rushing touchdown. A really good season for someone who's new to our school.

Jordan Horstick

During the season, Jordan had about forty tackles and also had three sacks. He had a real good season and was

It is ten percent luck, twenty percent skill.

Fifteen percent concentrated power of will. Five percent pleasure, fifty percent pain. And one hundred percent reason to remember the name.

~Remember the name: Fort Minor~

Wrestling

Each year the school starts letting kids wrestle as a sport., I had a word with their coach, Mr. Meyer , and asked him a few questions.

First, I asked him if he enjoyed being a coach, he said he does. He has been coaching for ten years, and goes to practice everyday except for weekends. Mr. Meyer always goes to their tournaments, he believes wrestling is a sport to be enjoyed.

Wrestling is a very popular sport, many kids have heard of it or are great fans. There are many false things people think about wrestling, it is not always what it seems as it is seen on T.V. It can mislead people into thinking things about it that aren't true. There are many false stereotypes, it is simpler than some people think, for some it's more complicated. It is not about body slams and bench pressing, it takes a lot of practice, dedication, and skill, and it involves a lot of technique and training.

“US” weekly

This is an article about us, about how and what we do. We are the news, we are the press. A lot of kids choose to be a writer, a true writer chooses to make articles in the press. This is the way to capture people’s attention. It helps us better understand the world and its doings. Kids choose this class because they would like to have a taste of the true writer’s world, to have a little adventure in their lives. We are the press. We are true writers.

This quarter the newspaper is trying to try something that’s new, so we have added and taken out some columns. We put a lot of hard work into putting together the paper that you read so that it doesn't make you bored or even fall asleep. I hope that you find this is way better than it has been in the past.

Star Student

6th grade

Lindsey Folsom: Lindsey’s favorite subject is science. Her favorite school lunch is chicken nuggets. If she could create her own lunch, it would be candy. If Lindsey could change the mascot at Central Heights, it would be a monkey. Chocolate is Lindsey’s favorite type of ice-cream.

Sam Skeet:: Sam’s favorite subject is math. Sam doesn’t eat school lunch, he brings his own. So Sam doesn’t have a favorite. A turkey sandwich would be a lunch he would create. If he could change the mascot here, it would be a Jayhawk. Sam’s favorite ice-cream is vanilla.

7th grade

Amanda Raby: Math is Amanda’s favorite subject, Chili is her favorite school lunch. If she could make her own lunch, she would make it chicken. Amanda wouldn’t change the mascot, she likes it the way it is. Chocolate is her favorite ice-cream.

Charlie Webb: Math is Charlie’s favorite subject. Charlie’s favorite school lunch is pizza. If Charlie could create his own lunch it would be a hamburger. If Charlie could change the mascot at Central Heights it would be a Wildcat. His favorite type of ice-cream is vanilla.

8th grade

Samantha Pryor: Algebra is Samantha’s favorite subject. Her favorite school lunch is hamburger and milkshakes. If she could create her own lunch it would be steak, baked potato, and snickers. Samantha would make our new school mascot a wild cat. Mint Chocolate Chip is Samantha’s favorite flavor of ice-cream.

Tanner Erhart: Science is Tanners favorite subject. His favorite school lunch is hamburger and milk shake. If he could create his own lunch it would be two hamburgers, two milkshakes, and curly fries. If he could change the mascot it would be a KU Jayhawk. Tanner’s favorite type of ice-cream is strawberry.

Healthy Tips

I'm going to talk about some healthy tips to help our school a little because of all the sickness that's going around. You all may have heard of the swine flu or H1N1. Well it's known to be transmitted from pigs as well as humans that's why its called swine flu. I interviewed the school nurse and I asked her why it's spreading so badly. She told me since it's so new its spreading all over and nobody is really used to it yet. I also asked her the best ways to prevent it and she told me that it's a good idea to get plenty of rest and drink lots of fluids. But one of the main things we should all do is wash our hands and sneeze inside our elbows. So follow some of these tips and prevent sickness!

Editorial

President Obama is wanting to lengthen the school year to all year round. Many people are behind him, but we, as students, are totally against it. A lot of people do summer sports and really enjoy their time away from school. All the officials say that we lose 3 months of stuff we learned over the summer. But then again we are out of school for 3 months anyway so what are we going to learn other than the usual it's not like we turn dumb over the summer. The only good thing that would come from it is that we would have longer breaks, but we wouldn't get the long 3 month break and we wouldn't have the time to play summer sports or other vacations and whatever else we do over the summer.

Cooks

Our cooks are very important to us at Central Heights. They provide two meals a day for some of us, so appreciate the cooks for what they do. Here are some questions that we asked the cooks.

Amazingly we eat 550 cinnamon rolls on chili day. We asked them how they felt about being left out of the yearbook last year, and they said they feel forgotten.

Stephanie one of the cooks said to make her work fun, she sings. The cooks love their job at CHS. We asked them what their favorite meal to cook is and they said chicken fajitas. They said the easiest meal to cook is chicken nuggets, their least favorite meal to cook is the pork fritter. So, don't forget to thank the cooks for making good meals for us.

Mikaela, Kirby, and the rest of the newspaper staff would like to give Mrs. Raby a special thank you for letting Mikaela & Kirby finish the paper during 6th hour. She could have made us stay down in the band room and play. She was kind enough to let us work on the paper so that it could be finished on our deadline. =)*= =P {=

Update from Football

Mr. Brown said that the football season went well, and they played hard and improved. He said that the eighth graders' best game was vs. Jayhawk-Linn, and the seventh graders' best game was Anderson County. Overall, he felt like they gave it their all. The seventh took fourth place in the league, and the eighth grade was tied for fifth place. Mr. Brown thinks they will be ready for basketball season because of conditioning, and that it looks promising.
